

Simpson Thacher & Bartlett Announces Adam Signy to Join in London

Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP announced today that Adam Signy will join the Firm as a Partner in its London office.

Mr. Signy's practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, particularly public company takeovers and private equity transactions, as well as capital markets. Mr. Signy has represented banks, private equity firms and corporate clients across a wide range of industries.

"We are delighted to have Adam join us," said Pete Ruegger, Chairman of Simpson Thacher's Executive Committee. "Adam is one of England's leading M&A lawyers, and we are confident that he will help us build on our success in London and enable us to meet more of the needs of our clients in the U.K. and globally."

"Adam is a wonderful fit for us in London," added Greg Conway, Managing Partner of Simpson Thacher's London office. "Adam's wealth of expertise and excellent reputation will enhance our ability to offer outstanding legal services to our clients."

Mr. Signy said: "I've had a very enjoyable and rewarding career as a partner of Clifford Chance for 22 years, helping to build one of the best law firms in the world. I will miss my many friends and colleagues at Clifford Chance. However, the opportunity to join the London office of Simpson Thacher to help them build an English law corporate practice was one I could not refuse."
