

SCHOOL
OF LAW

The New York International Law
Review presents

Redefining "Superpower": China's Economic and Military Policies and Their Global Impact

Friday, March 30, 2007 | 9:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m.

Keynote Speaker:

Scott D. Bates University of Indiana-Indianapolis, International Law Visiting Professor, Vice President and Senior Fellow of the Center for National Policy, former Secretary of State of Virginia, appointed Senior Policy Advisor for the U.S. House Select Committee on Homeland Security.

Panelists:

Olivier N. Antoine, Esq. Senior Associate of the litigation department and antitrust group of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, LLP

Carole P. Sadler, Esq. Senior Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel of Coach, Inc.

Dr. Chiang-Nan Chao Professor of Management, St. John's University Peter J. Tobin School of Business

Dr. Michael G. Kulma Director of Policy Programs, Asia Society

Yali Chen Editor in Chief of the Washington Observer Weekly, an independent, Chinese-language news magazine that focuses on American foreign policies and Sino-U.S. relations

The International Law & Practice
Section of the New York State Bar Association is co-sponsor of this event.

For more information please contact Symposium Editor Melissa Whitman at melissa.whitman04@stjohns.edu or (646) 342-3431.